

COUNCILLOR DALE LAST

Dale was first elected to the Townsville City Council in 2008. Dale has been a resident of Townsville for 11 years and is currently the Chair of the Townsville City Council Community Safety & Health Committee and the Deputy Chair of the Local Disaster Management Committee. He is also a member of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and, Community Safety Advisory Committees and the Townsville Drink Safe Precinct Committee.

Dale is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and owner of Lasting Fitness, a personal training and group fitness business. Dale is a dedicated 'Champion' of the Cleveland Youth Detention Centre mentoring program. He is heavily involved in sport throughout the community and supports family and community orientated events. He is the Patron of the Canine Obedience Club and Townsville Dressage Club and a member of the Townsville Breakwater Entertainment Centre Joint Venture Board.

Prior to being elected to Council, Dale was a member of the Queensland Police Service for 24 years. His law-enforcement career gave him the opportunity to be part of many committees and community organisations with an interest in providing safety to residents in everyday life and during times of disaster.
