

An Introduction to the Foundation Skills of

DRAWING

Saturday 17 August | 10am - 1pm | Perc Tucker Regional Gallery

Join us at Perc Tucker Regional Gallery for a workshop with exhibiting artist Elizabeth Barden, introducing the foundation skills of drawing, with a focus on tonal values and their importance in creating the illusion of realism in drawing. Participants will complete a series of small exercises, resulting in a pencil rendering of the human eye.

Ages: 16yrs+

Cost: $25 ($17 for Friends of the Galleries)

All materials provided.

Bookings essential, spaces limited.

STORYTELLING

Through Portraiture

Sunday 18 August | 10.30am - 11.30am | Perc Tucker Regional Gallery

Join us at the Gallery for a talk about storytelling and portraiture with Percivals finalist, Elizabeth Barden.

"Through my paintings I can tell visual stories of people, to highlight uniqueness and strengths as we seek ways to understand ourselves, and our communities. This has always been my focus, and will remain so. I hope that by painting individuals, I add to the Australian identity, moments in time of our collective history."

Free, no bookings required.
