Breakout Session Topics

The breakout sessions will provide you with tools and practical advice to enable organisations to better plan for and write grant applications. These sessions will also provide education on where best to source grant information. The presenters have years of experience in managing and supporting others in the grants space.

“Get in the Game”

Matthew Burton

Senior Advisor, National Parks, Sport and Racing

- This session will help your organisation “Get in the Game”. The Queensland State Government is currently in a three year, $100 million commitment to the Get in the Game initiative supports individuals and organisations in increasing sport and active recreation participation.

Community Grants

Dean Hardisty

Community Grants Officer
Townsville City Council

- With funding available across 10 grant programs within Townsville City Council this session will provide an overview of funding available from our Sport and Recreation, Cultural and Community grants.

Gambling Community Benefit Fund

Melissa Stanford

Senior Advisor, National Parks, Sport and Racing

- Find out how your organisation can apply for funds through the Gambling Community Benefit Fund. The Office of Liquor and Gaming Regulation (OLGR) Community Benefit Funds Unit (CBFU) distributes revenue from gaming taxes to various not-for-profit community groups throughout Queensland.

Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF)

Nicolle Mercer

Project Officer Arts & Culture,
Townsville City Council

- This session will un-wrap the mystery that is RADF. The Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a Queensland Government (Arts Queensland) and local government partnership to support arts and cultural activities across the state. Each year Townsville City Council lodges a bid to Arts Queensland for an allocation of RADF funding.
